“When I Call for Help”

A Pastoral Response to Domestic Violence Against Women

A Statement of the U.S. Catholic Bishops

The following is quoted. U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops<sup>9</sup>

The Bishops' Position on Domestic Violence

- “As pastors of the Catholic Church in the United States,
  - we state as clearly and strongly as we can that violence against women , inside or outside the home, is never justified.”

USCCB, 2002-quoted including the following slides in this section.

The Bishops' Position on Domestic Violence

- A correct reading of Scripture:
  - leads to an understanding of the equal dignity of men and women and to relationships based on mutuality and love.

The Bishops' Position on Domestic Violence

- Forgiveness does not mean forgetting the abuse or pretending it did not happen.
- Forgiveness is not permission to repeat the abuse.

The Bishops' Position on Domestic Violence

- An abused woman's suffering is not punishment from God.
- This image of a harsh, cruel God runs contrary to the biblical image of a kind, merciful, loving God.

The Bishops' Position on Domestic Violence

- Couples counseling is not appropriate and can endanger the victim's safety.

The Bishops' Position on Domestic Violence

- No person is expected to stay in an abusive marriage.
- We encourage abused persons who have divorced to investigate the possibility of seeking an annulment.

Break Time

Interacting with Victims

- Calls to the Parish
  - For emergency help: With the caller's permission and after getting the caller's location, call 911.
  - For immediate help: Illinois Domestic Violence Hotline at 877-863-6338 or National Domestic Violence Hotline at 800-799-7233

Interacting with Victims

- Be sensitive to any comments about or signs of domestic violence.
- Talk in private if she or he agrees.
- Respect victim's choices.
- Empower.
- You cannot rescue the victim.

Fr. Charles W. Dahm, O.P.<sup>2</sup>

Interacting with Victims

- Validate victim's feelings.
  - I believe you.
  - You are not alone.
  - I know it is very difficult.

Interacting with Victims

- Be prepared for comments like:
  - I am worthless.
  - I am ashamed.
  - I will never trust or love anyone again.
  - I will never get out of this relationship.
  - He will kill me.

Interacting with Victims

- Why does domestic violence happen?
- Why has God abandoned me?
- My sin has caused this.
- I do not feel God's presence.
- I do not believe in God.

Interacting with Victims

- Do

Accompany the victim through steps the victim chooses:

- Calling shelters
- Visiting a police station
- Give the victim referral information and resources.

Interacting with Victims

- Do not:

- blame the victim.
- encourage dependence on you.
- minimize the danger.

Interacting with Victims

- direct her to submit to the abuser.
- send her home with just a prayer.

Interacting with Victims

- Do not
  - make a joint appointment for the victim and the abuser.
  - This can be dangerous.

Interacting with Victims

- Do not

- recommend marriage counseling.
- encourage the victim to forget.
- give victim tips on how not to avoid antagonizing her abuser.

Interacting with Abusers

- Be prepared:

- Abusers lie and are self-absorbed.
- Righteous, arrogant, and narcissistic.
- Jealous or envious.

Fr. Charles W. Dahm, O.P.<sup>2</sup>

Interacting with Abusers

- Be prepared.

- In denial. Likely to be a charmer.
- Angry, simmering, and explosive.
- Lacking remorse and refusing advice.

Interacting with Abusers

- Be clear with the abuser:
  - Anger management and drinking issues, should be treated separately.
  - Remorse is not the same as changing behavior.

Interacting with Abusers

■ Do not:

- give the abuser any information about the victim.
- advocate for the abuser in order to avoid the legal consequences of his violence.
- send abuser home with just a prayer.

Interacting with Abusers

- Identify support services for the abuser.
  - Recommend individual counseling.
  - Twenty-four-week counseling programs are available.
  - Guide them to the appropriate community resources.

Interacting with Children

- Children who live with domestic violence feel:
  - Powerless. They can't stop the violence.
  - Confused. It doesn't make sense.
  - Angry. It shouldn't be happening.
  - Guilty. They think they've done something wrong.
  - Sad. It's a loss.
  - Afraid. They may be hurt, lose someone they love, or others may find out.
  - Alone. They think it's happening only to them.

ADVA (Against DV & Abuse), Devon County Council, UK<sup>10</sup>—quoted

Interacting with Children

- Children need to hear that DV:
  - It is not your fault.
  - It must be scary for you.
  - I will listen to you.

Interacting with Children

- Ideas for helping children when they have witnessed domestic violence.
  - You do not deserve to have this in your family.
  - You can tell me how you feel.
  - I will help to keep you safe.

Interacting with Children

Kids need counseling.

Interaction

Do No Harm!

If you are not sure of a course of action,
talk to a professional.
